People for Proper Policing in North Wales

Rudolph William Louis Rudy Giuliani III Born May 28th 1944 served as the Mayor of New York from Jan.1st 1994 through to Dec. 31st 2001 (Our emphasis & comments)
1st published 12th January 2004

In his first term as mayor, Giuliani pursued an aggressive and hugely successful policing policy resulting in declines in virtually every category of crime. Such policing efforts led to an increase in the distrust of police by black Americans and other minorities.....Who were disproportionately responsible for much of the crime! AND the other major area of work must be to resolve the social problems that lead to such dysfunctional and disruptive minorities but this can only take place effectively once law and order has been achieved.

Quotes by Rudy....

- "We only see the oppressive side of authority. Maybe it comes out of our history and our background. (Europe at war, Ellice Island and the Statue of liberty). What we don't see is that freedom is not a concept in which people can do anything they want, be anything they can be. Freedom is about authority. Freedom is about the willingness of every single human being to cede to lawful authority a great deal of discretion about what you do and how you do it."
- The PPP comments.....what Rudy left out because, maybe, it wasn't a problem in NY because of his leadership and control..... was.....this authority must be multi-skilled & capable, honest & reasonable and motivated in the best interests of the decent majority of the citizens it works for!. The North Wales police appear to exhibit none of these qualities.

The man described above was invited to the UK by Blair to explain the success of his 'zero tolerance' policy that transformed New York City.

This was yet another exercise in high profile/nil content spin politics by Blair.....What has been the follow up!?

Locally, the N.Wales police are unwilling or incapable of applying such a policy to the picturesque village of Dwygyfylchi, never mind their own backyard of Colwyn Bay or Holyhead, except of course against ALL motorists via their leader's pet obsession, the revenue raising speed camera policy.

PPP update.....after OVER 2 years one dysfunctional male has been finally banned from Dwygyfylchi!? LATEST a month ago he's BACK AGAIN!!
